

This is a very useful tool to have. We can have instant reports on the traffic in certain areas we are going to and then know what we have ahead of us. It is a safety tool as well. We just might prevent having an accident with our 18 wheeler. We need the weather channel also because it helps prevent accidents. These traffic and weather channels are great to have and know what you are going to run into before hand.